

76th Tennessee Strawberry Festival, Boot Skootin' Berries

Dear Family Fun Area Participant,

Thank you for your interest in the Annual Tennessee Strawberry Festival held here in Dayton, TN.

Please note the following policy:

- Entrance fee will be 20% of total gross sales.
- Entries will be limited to one type of vendor per festival.
- There will be no food sales (hotdogs, hamburgers, etc) in the children's area.
- Prior year participants will receive priority, but participation in previous festivals does not guarantee booth space. Space is limited.
- A copy of your liability insurance must be submitted with your application.
- Participant will be responsible for Tennessee Sales Tax remittance.

The Craft and Food Vendors for the 2023 Tennessee Strawberry Festival will be setting up on May 11th and will be open the public on May 12th and 13th. The Family Fun area is open for business from 9:00AM till dark on Saturday, May 13th however, if you can, you are welcome to open the evening of Friday, May 12th. If you are interested in becoming part of the Family Fun Area, please complete the enclosed application and mail it back to the Chamber office (address below).

The Family Fun Area participants may begin arriving anytime on Friday, May 12th and if you are on the courthouse lawn, feel free to be open for business.

We fully expect that the Family Fun Area will stay at least until dark on Saturday.

Mission Statement:

The Tennessee Strawberry Festival is the celebration of small-town life. It offers a chance for our community to showcase its beauty, history, and commitment to family values. It is the goal of the Dayton Chamber of Commerce and the businesses it represents to acknowledge the community support and patronage we receive throughout the year.
